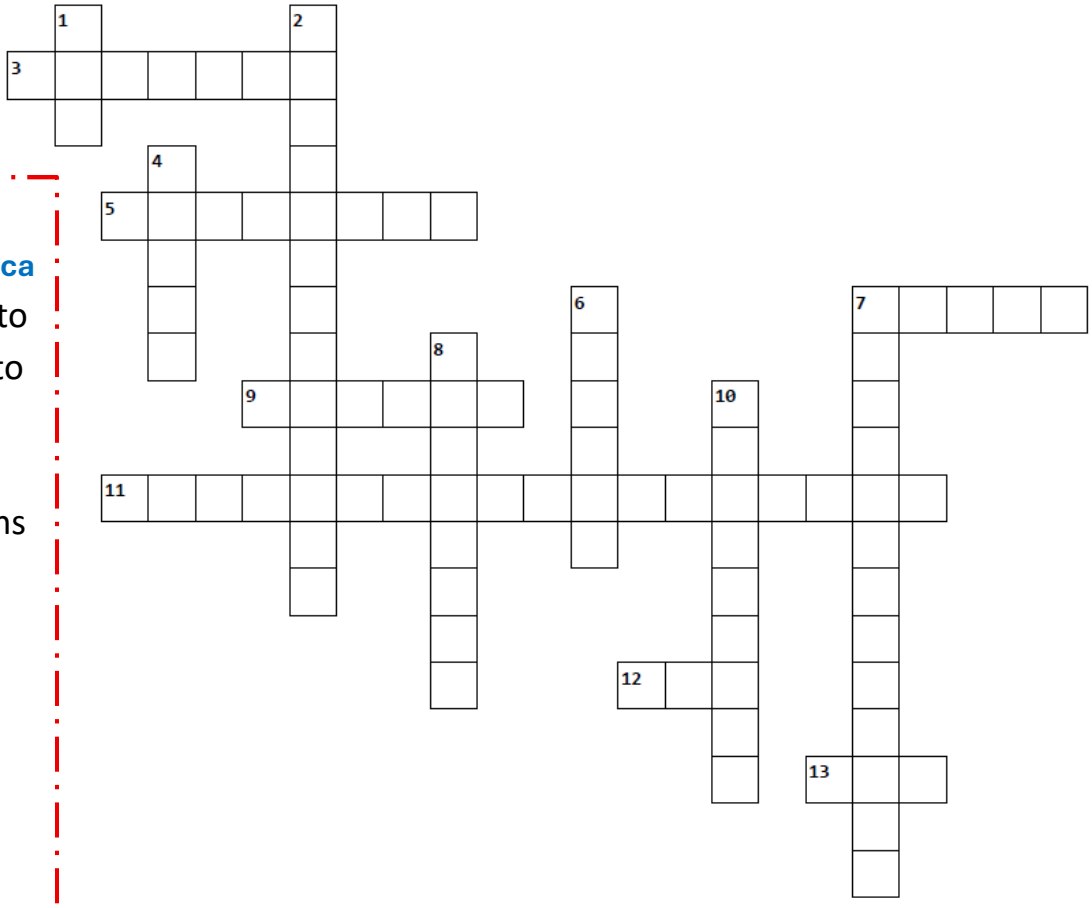
Digital Health Week

Test Your Knowledge

Hamilton Family Health Team
Better care, together.



Email
qiadmin@hamiltonfht.ca
or scan this QR code to submit your answer to #2 Down and get 5 entries into the Amazon &Tim Hortons gift card draws!

Across	Down
3. The right or state of being free of unauthorized access to one's personal information	1. Delivers hospital and independent health facility reports medical records, DI reports directly into EMRs
5. A digital tool powered by artificial intelligence that listens to a conversation between a doctorand a patient and automatically writes clinical notes	2. The practice of protecting computers, networks, programs, and data from digital attacks, damage, or unauthorized access
7. A common cloud-based digital health platform enabling secure messaging, eReferral and online appointment booking	4. A stand-alone booth or computer terminal in a clinic that offers self-service tasks like patient check-in
9. A tool used by healthcare groups to collect feedback from patients about their experience and care	6. Protected against unauthorized access, interception, tampering, and cyber threats
11. A formal, organized way to make work processes better. It uses data, clear goals, and small tests to fix system problems and improve results	7. A digital self-service tool that lets users schedule, reschedule, or cancel appointments electronically over the internet without making a phone call
12. A digital version of a traditional paper chart used in a medical practice in primary care	8. A database about a group of patients who share a specific disease, condition, or medical experience
13. A formal document that the HFHT creates to set goals and track improvements in patient care and safety over the coming year	10. A secure digital tool that replaces paper forms and faxes to send, manage, and track patient referrals between healthcare providers